

State-of-the-Art Automated Delivery

Communication with your customers is often the key element of a successful business relationship. In order to provide you with a better means of communicating with your customers, IBT has added this innovative and valuable feature that can automatically email and fax interim account “statements” to any email address or fax location specified by the account owner.

Features & Benefits

E-Statements are a great way to supplement your financial institution’s e-Banking delivery channels and a wonderful complement to your Internet Banking offering.

*email integration requires support for Microsoft Outlook on your network.
